Good Representation is Critical

Whether your matter is a family issue, personal injury, commercial or general civil litigation, good representation is critical. When you contact an attorney you need to know that you'll get the right advice and find out exactly where you stand. Skilled litigators affiliated with our firm have the experience to guide you through even the most complex of cases.

Can Your Matter Be Resolved?

A healthy society, and healthy individuals in it, allow time for informal methods of conflict resolution. Try to talk things out, to understand the other's position and needs, to work out a solution.

Remember that the costs of retaining a lawyer can be saved if informal resolution is reached. It can be better to lose a little face now than to waste money litigating a marginal cause only to be embarrassed later before the judge.

Personal Injury Cases

From car accidents to slip and fall, civil assault to medical malpractice - in any case, what you need is someone to tell you the limits to your rights and the limits of the other side's liability. Our affiliated attorneys can help establish whether you have a valid case that will stand up in court - and try your case if it cannot be settled.

General Civil Litigation

Boundary disputes, contractual matters, disputes with businesses - if you have a disagreement that you've been unable to resolve, come to us for a consultation.

We can help you discover what your rights and liabilities are and help you see the pros and cons of different courses of action. A cost-benefit analysis can show whether a case is really worth pursuing.

And since civil litigation cases are rarely taken on a contingency, we pride ourselves on letting you know what costs you may face - so you can make a fully educated decision before moving forward.

Commercial & Business Disputes

It may be a dispute between businesses, with a supplier, a landlord - even your partner. A full consultation and cost-benefit analysis will show whether pursuing the matter through the courts is really in your best interests.

We have the experience to show you the consequences of particular actions. We can guide you towards the best and most financially practical course of action, especially for small business owners, that avoids unnecessary expenses and distractions - and allows you to continue the real work of running your business.

Family Matters

This is the area of law most fraught with emotion - and the area where people are often the least likely to make the right decision for themselves and their families in the long run. That's why expert legal help and support can be so vital - for the sake of all those involved.

There are many cases in domestic family litigation in which there are no real winners. The cost of “winning” can be much more than what is gained. We always seek to advise our clients to take the path that yields the greatest long term benefits, taking into account the economic and emotional costs to family members, especially children.

Mediation

Our firm also offers mediation services that can often help avoid a court appearance. If two parties are willing to make an effort to resolve an issue without resorting to litigation, we can act as a neutral mediator.
